OFFICER KILLED; SLAYER ESCAPES

Wilson Aroused Over Shooting Yesterday.

While Attempting to Arrest Negro Thieves Deputy Sheriff Is Killed and Chief of Police Mortally Wounded—Bloodhounds on the Scene—Considerable Excitement Throughout County Over Affair.

Wilson, Feb. 3.—This city was thrown into a state of the greatest excitement this afternoon when it was learned that Deputy Sheriff Geo. Mumford and Chief of Police O. A. Glover were shot down in an attempt to arrest negro thieves. This morning the authorities were notified by the sheriff of Cumberland county to look out for thieves that robbed a hardware store in Dunn of pistols, etc., and suspicious characters were located this afternoon on the outskirts of the city.

Policeman Wynne, disguised in hunting clothes, watched the suspects while other officers came up. The negroes were located soon afterwards in negro house near the Norfolk & Southern freight depot. Mumford and Glover went in while Policemen Warren and Wynne watched the rear. Firing at once began, but the police in the rear did not leave their posts, fearing the negroes would escape. In the meantime Mumford and Glover both were shot and the murderer or murderers escaped, but were fired on by officers as they ran.

Mumford and Glover were carried to the hospital where Mumford, who was shot through the head, soon died. Glover was shot through both lungs and is not expected to live.

A military company and hundreds of citizens are patrolling the roads of the county and a special train has just arrived, bringing bloodhounds to the scene. The whole county is on guard. One arrest was made but the party was exonerated. All stations in this section have been notified of the crime and the arrests of the negroes is hourly expected. The idea of two officers being shot down in broad daylight in the city and the guilty negroes escaping, astounds the public. A sufficient reward will be offered, it is expected, to catch the murderers.

Another Report.

Wilson, Feb. 3.—This afternoon in the suburbs of this place Deputy Sheriff Mumford was killed and Chief of Police Glover was perhaps fatally wounded by a desperate negro. Bloodhounds have been placed on the track of the negro and feeling is running high. The negro was wanted for breaking into a store at Dunn. The officers went to his house, which is situated in the outskirts, to arrest him.

The negro, who carried two Colt's revolvers, opened fire with one of them. The deputy sheriff was shot down and begged the negro not to shoot any more.

With the officer prostrate on the floor the negro shot twice more, both balls taking effect in the head and killing the officer instantly. The chief of police was desperately wounded.

News of the shocking affair became quickly circulated and it is likely that the negro, if captured, will receive summary treatment.

The friends of Mrs. Hattie Sullivan White, who has been making her home at the residence of Dr. Jordan in the city, and Mr. James Wesley White, of Greensboro, were surprised this morning to learn of their marriage which took place last night at eleven o'clock at the First Baptist church, the ceremony being performed by the pastor, Rev. T. W. O'Kelly, D. D.

Here to attend the wedding were: Capt. and Mrs. Augustine Bryan White, parents of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Minnietree, Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Grubbs, Mr. and Mrs. H. McMillan, of Greensboro; Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Wooten, Mr. and Mrs. George Woodard, Mrs. Charles White, Miss Ragsdale, of Greenville, and Mr. and Mrs. B. V. Dixon, of Kinston.

Both bride and groom have many friends who will wish them much joy and happiness. The bride is the daughter of the late Mr. Sullivan White, of Pitt county and since coming to this city to reside has made her home with Dr. T. M. Jordan. The groom is the son of Capt. and Mrs. A. B. White, of Greensboro. Both are well known throughout the state. They left last night for a wedding trip to Boston and other northern cities.

WILSON PLEASES BRYAN

Jersey Governor Thanked for His Support of Martine.

Lincoln, Neb., Feb. 3.—Because of his support of James B. Martine for United States Senator, W. J. Bryan has rendered political absolution to Governor Woodrow Wilson, of New Jersey, and placed him in his list of the Democratic elect. In the forthcoming issue of his Commoner, Bryan gives unstinted praise to the New Jersey Executive, and concludes:

"Undoubtedly Governor Wilson knows more about practical politics today than he did when James Smith, Jr., and other New Jersey corporationists gave him the gubernatorial nomination and held before his eyes the tempting hope for the Presidency. If Governor Wilson had known in 1896 what he knows today he would have fought shoulder to shoulder with the Democrats of that year, rather than with the Palmer and Buckner forces that were working as aides to the Republican party."

In the name of every lover of popular government the Commoner thanks Governor Wilson for his patriotic efforts. It congratulates New Jersey upon having sent to the United States Senate such a man as James B. Martine and it expresses the hope that from now on the fine effort to which New Jersey's governor is so capable may be given on the right side.

Death of Infant.

The six-month-old child of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Hull, 106 Fifteenth street, White Oak, died yesterday morning at 5 o'clock, following an illness of bronchial pneumonia. The funeral was held yesterday at 12 o'clock, conducted by Rev. W. H. Eller. The remains were taken to Kernersville on the afternoon train for interment.

NEW METHOD OF BUILDING ROADS

State Convict System is Proposed.

Spainhour Bill Would Use State Convicts in Constructing Roads, One Half of Expense to Be Borne by County Through Which Road Passes—Atlantic Coast Line May Have to Improve Service Between Goldsboro and Wilmington.

Raleigh, Feb. 3.—Considerable interest is being manifested in the Spainhour bill to establish a state convict system of highway construction by judicial districts, beginning with the construction of roads connecting the county seats. He would use all the state convicts for this work except enough to operate the state farm and would maintain a state chain-gang in each judicial district half the expense to be provided by the counties in the respective districts, and all the county convicts to be concentrated with the state convicts who shall be distributed in the districts in which they are sentenced. The bill is entitled an act to establish a system of state highways in North Carolina.

The Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company has been directed by the North Carolina Corporation Commission to show cause why the company should not be required to operate its Norfolk-Goldsboro and Norfolk-Wilmington train instead by extending the run from Goldsboro to Wilmington. This action is taken on petition of a number of the members of the General Assembly who represent territory interested east of Goldsboro. What is wanted is for the train to start daily from Wilmington at 4 a. m. and return to Wilmington at night at 12:45 a. m., leaving the Norfolk-Goldsboro schedule unchanged. This would enable people leaving Raleigh at 4 p. m. to reach Wilmington that night instead of spending the night in Goldsboro and one could leave Wilmington at 4 a. m. and get back to Raleigh at 8:30 a. m. The fight for this additional service is being led by Carr, of Duplin.

Mr. Leslie Abbott, auditor for the county of Guilford, began yesterday auditing the books of Wake county. Today he is working on the books of the register of deeds and will go through the court house before the job is completed. The auditing completes the work done during the past three years.

THE NEW CHARTER.

Commission Form An Improvement Over Present System, Says Mr. A. M. Scales.

Editor Telegram:

From experience and observation during a period of ten years as city attorney, I am convinced that the commission form of government, as proposed by our new charter, will be a great improvement over our present system. I verily believe that there is not a business corporation that could exist for any considerable length of time under the system which we now employ, and which is employed by so many cities throughout the United States. The old system where responsibility for failure can hardly be fixed upon anyone, and where so many things are left to chance and impulse, has been thoroughly discredited by the experience of American towns and cities. I believe that the commission form of government, such as is proposed for our city, is the best plan yet devised to cure the running sores of American municipal government, and I sincerely hope that the citizens of Greensboro will decide to give it a trial. We cannot be much hurt by the change and I have great confidence that we will be greatly benefited.

By a business management and a wiser expenditure of moneys we can make Greensboro a much more desirable place to live in and thus will help its further growth. If we will all get together and work for the advancement of our city, Greensboro may continue to smile at its detractors. In many ways we have the best town in the state and have shown as great actual growth as any of our sister cities.

SPECIAL ORDER FOR THURSDAY

Piedmont County Bill in Senate.

And It Comes Up With Unfavorable Report—Senator Hobgood Has It Made Special Order For Thursday—The Avery County Matter Special Order For Wednesday Night—Work in the House Yesterday.

Raleigh, Feb. 3.—In the senate today the bill to establish Piedmont county out of portions of Guilford, Randolph and Davidson was reported unfavorably by the committee on counties, cities and towns and Senator Boyden offered a minority report, signed by himself and three other members of the committee. Senator Hobgood moved that it be made a special order for next Thursday at 12 o'clock and this motion carried.

The Senate. President Newland convened the senate at 11 o'clock, Rev. A. D. Wilcox, of Central Methodist church, offering prayer.

Petitions Offered.

Petitions against near beer were offered by Senators Bennett, of Stanly; Lemon, of Union; Graham, of Orange; Hicks, of Granville; Carpenter, of Gaston; Hiatt, of Yancey; Cotten, of Pitt; Johnson, of Duplin; Baggett, of Harnett; Hobgood, of Guilford.

A favorable report was made on the bill to establish Avery county out of Mitchell, Caldwell and Watauga and Senator Sigmon offered an amendment providing that the people living in that portion of Watauga be given a right to vote on the question. He insisted on immediate action and a lively debate ensued, finally terminating in the matter being made special order for next Wednesday night at 8 o'clock. Senator Carpenter favored immediate action, but there were strenuous objections by Senators Pharr, Johnson, Gardner, Cobb, Rascoe, Hicks and Brown. During the debate Senator Brown, who is chairman of the finance committee, called attention to the condition of the state treasury. He said that in 1906 the state treasurer had a balance of $347,000, but that now there is a deficit of $349,000, showing that in that period the state has spent $696,000 more than it has received, the average annual deficit being $175,000 in round numbers. He said he voted for Hoke county, but that he seriously doubted whether or not the state ought to create any new counties. Half of the time of the session has passed, he added, and the most vital legislation has not yet been touched. Continuing he said the senate must meet the situation squarely and either provide for increased revenue or reduce expenses and close the flood gates until the people pay taxes sufficient to run the government. He did not intend to vote for appropriations until the money is provided. He did not desire to mix another question with the Avery county bill, but wanted the senators to understand that the state's financial condition is the most important matter with which they will have to deal.

The biennial reports of the A. & M. College, State Normal College, State Library Commission and a list of the vacancies on the board of trustees of the University of North Carolina were transmitted to the senate through a message from the governor.

House.

Speaker Dowd called the house to order at 11 o'clock. Prayer by Rev. A. J. Moncrief of the Baptist Tabernacle. Representative Brown of Stanly sent forward petitions against near beer and intoxicants in clubs. And Mr. Kellum, of New Hanover, a petition relative to the clam law.

The education and the appropriation committees reported favorably the bill for the relief of the Appalachian Training School and Judiciary Committee No. 2 reported favorably the Connor bill for uniform bills of lading. And the committee on libraries reported favorably bills for establishing and maintaining public libraries and traveling libraries.

New Bills.

Ewart: Joint resolution for a joint select committee to report a bill recommending amendments to the state constitution. Placed on the calendar.

Tomlin: Resolution of condolence to "Old Boozie and all his family."

FROM ELON COLLEGE.

Number of Lectures At College During Spring Term—Athletics.

Elon College, Feb. 3.—The spring term will be especially rich this year in lectures from distinguished men. On the 7th, 8th, 9th, Dr. Martyn Summerbell of Lakemont, N. Y., will deliver a course of lectures. On the 13th and 14th of this month Dr. E. U. Hoenshel, Dayton, Va., will deliver two lectures on his travels, and on March, the third or fourth week, the exact date having not yet been determined, the Rev. Franks S. Child, Fairfield, Conn., who is himself a distinguished author and minister of large reputation, will lecture one week. Later on in the spring Dr. J. J. Summerbell, Dayton, Ohio, will deliver a course of lectures. It is with pleasure that the college can announce such a roster of distinguished men.

Interest in athletics continues to grow as the spring opens up. Every day Coach Hearn has the baseball squad on the athletic field and puts them through severe training. He is satisfied that Elon will have a good team this spring and feels that it ought to capture a goodly number of trophies in the way of victories over opposing teams with which the schedule has been arranged.

Most of the games this year will be played on the local diamond and not at Burlington as heretofore.

Friday evening the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Kernodle was opened for the reception of guests. Mesdames J. O. Atkinson and W. A. Harper assisted the hostess in receiving the guests. During the evening delightful refreshments were served and games were participated in. Those who attended are unanimous in praises of Mr. and Mrs. Kernodle as host and hostess.

New Greensboro Concern.

The authorized capital stock is $25,000, but may begin business when $5,000 has been subscribed. The stockholders are N. R. Wood, E. P. Wharton, T. W. Alderman, George E. Spencer, Myrta Alderman.

A Case of Destitution.

The attention of The Telegram has been called to a case of need at 319 W. Lee street. (The house is not numbered but it would be 319 if numbered). A woman and her son live there and recently the son, the sole support of the household, has an arm broken, incapacitating him for work for some time. The statement is made by a member of the family that money, wood or food would be very welcome at this home.

Story Hour At Library.

The story hour with Miss Florence Pannill in the library yesterday had an unusually large attendance, fully 200 little ones being present. The three stories they heard from their gifted teacher were delightfully told and the children were blissfully happy from beginning to close.

Register Today!

Maj. W. W. Wood, the registrar for the election on the commission form of government, urges that voters not registered will come in today and register and not delay this important matter any longer.

ROUGE AN AID TO HAPPINESS.

Court Sends Husband Back to Wife Said to "Paint Like Indian."

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Feb. 3.—Alderman John P. Donohue decided yesterday that George Schrieder, of this city, was not justified in leaving his wife because she uses face powder and, as Mr. Schrieder asserts, "paints herself like an Indian."

The alderman, after a night's reflection, reached the conclusion that cosmetics are necessary for the happiness and the good looks of women and make them a comfort to their husbands. He ordered Mr. Schrieder to return to his wife, support her as he should and pay the costs of the prosecution.

"The art of facial decoration is one of the most necessary for the preservation of the beauty of the female sex, and if I have anything to do with it it shall not become a lost art. It is one thing that keeps women everlasting young and a comfort to her husband, who grows old all too quickly through the business pressure of today."

"The rouge, the chamois, and the powder puffs are absolutely necessary essentials to the happiness of every woman, and your wife is not an exception." Schrieder was ordered to report each month to the court and to cultivate a taste for the artistic.

R. A. and Sunbeams.

The R. A. and Sunbeams of Asheboro Street Baptist church will meet at the church Sunday afternoon promptly at 3 o'clock. At this meeting the envelope with the foreign mission fund offering will be gathered in and each member is expected to be present.

Captain Tisdale of the 4th United States cavalry, years ago serving on what was then called "the plains," being sent out to reconnoiter the forces of the hostile tribes of Indians, who were at war with each other, came upon a small band of Sioux who were shooting arrows at long distance at an Indian boy they had captured from their enemies. Their object was to torture the boy by making the distance between him and them so great that they would likely fire a long time at him before giving him his death wound. He had been struck several times, but not yet in a vital part.

Captain Tisdale bought the boy for $20. The captive, who was tied to the trunk of a tree, was unbound and taken up by the captain's order behind one of the troopers. Tisdale had no use for his purchase, but if the boy were left to himself he would either die without food or be recaptured, tortured and killed. So the captain decided to keep him with the command and when the troop returned to the fort take him along.

The boy's Indian name being unpronounceable, he was given another—Jim. There was no reason why he should not have been called John or Jack or Joe instead. It happened simply that the captain first thought of Jim. The boy was about fifteen years old, tall and straight and had all the fortitude of his race. When released from being a target, though fainting from loss of blood, he kept a resolute look on his face and did not seem especially pleased that his life had been saved.

Since there was nothing for Jim to do at the fort, Captain Tisdale concluded to make him his servant. Servants were hard to get in western garrisons, and Tisdale, who was a married man, thought Jim would make a good waiter. The captain proposed this to the boy, but received no reply of either assent or dissent. He went about his duties sullenly, but attended to them faithfully. Tisdale was surprised that he displayed no gratitude for the saving of his life, but Tisdale had little faith in the better impulses of the savages and ascribed Jim's apparent indifference to his redskin nature. Mrs. Tisdale went even further. She feared all Indians and dreaded lest they should be murdered by Jim some night and he would be missing in the morning.

Then came news that the tribe by which Jim had been made captive had broken away from their reservation and were roaming about murdering settlers, burning houses and pillaging. All the garrison of Fort — except a sufficient guard went out to drive the savages back into their proper limits. Captain Tisdale before departing said to Jim:

"Jim, I wish you to be good to Mrs. Tisdale while I am away."

"Me go, too," replied Jim.

"All right," said the captain, who was fearful of leaving him. "I'll get you a horse from the quartermaster, and you shall be my orderly."

For the first time since Jim had been purchased a light came into his eye.

"You would rather fight than wait on the table, wouldn't you, Jim?" said the captain.

"My father chief!" said Jim proudly.

The change in Jim mounted on a charger from carrying vials on a tray was something wonderful. And was he not going to fight the very tribe who had intended to shoot him to death? When the command trotted out of the fort, many of the men sobered by the thought that they might never get back to it, Jim rode behind Captain Tisdale, the light of supreme happiness in his eye.

In those days, though the savages were armed with rifles, they could not always get the requisite ammunition and were obliged to supplement their armament with the bows and arrows. The United States force that marched against them, learning that they were in camp within striking distance, attempted to surprise them in the early morning, but the cavalry were late in getting on the ground and found a force four times their own numbers drawn up to receive them.

During the fight Jim fought like a young devil. But he never left his captain. Tisdale was leading a charge into a nest of Indians when an arrow struck him in the forearm. At the same moment his horse fell dead. Jim like a flash jumped from his own horse, raised his captain, pulled the arrow from the wound, looked at its point and, kneeling by the captain, who was sitting dazed on the ground, began to suck the wound.

The Indians were driven before the advancing force, and when succor arrived for Captain Tisdale he was found in a stupor, Jim beside him chanting his own death song. The boy was recounting the few deeds of valor he had had opportunity to perform in his boyhood, and as part of his song was in English those about knew that his captain had been struck by a poisoned arrow and Jim had sucked the poison into his own system.

A surgeon came and gave both the captain and his young orderly an antidote. Tisdale recovered, but Jim, his system having absorbed most of the poison, sank lower till his song ceased and he was dead.

When the command heard that Jim had died for his captain he was accorded a funeral with military honors.

In connection with the visit of a number of Baltimoreans to the city today and as an indication of how Baltimore does things, an article elsewhere in the paper headed "A Free Trip For Buyers" will be found interesting.

In view of the law to tax bachelors in Henderson county we are at a loss to know whether to invite to Guilford the girls or the bachelors. But if the latter will migrate into this land of the free, we will introduce them to some damsels whose beauty and charm will give them cause to thank the Legislature for running them away from home.

On Thursday the Vice President of the United States cast his vote in favor of the ship subsidy deal, thus breaking a tie in the Senate, the vote being 39 ayes and 39 noes. Following the vote on the ship subsidy he was called upon to break another tie on the resolution looking to the direct election of Senators. And when the vote for adjournment was taken there was another tie. Thus three times in succession the Vice President exercised his prerogative of casting the majority vote, the first time such a thing has been done in the history of the country.

WELCOME TO THE VISITORS FROM BALTIMORE.

The visitors from Baltimore today will be warmly welcomed. As a city noted for its Southern sympathies and for the large number of Southerners among its population, Baltimore has a firm place in the affections and in the admiration both of Greensboro and of a great many other communities in the South.

We hope our visitors from the Monumental City will take home with them favorable impressions of Greensboro and we will suggest that some of them come here to live, for as desirable a home-city as Baltimore is Greensboro is better.

Greensboro, we will say for the benefit of today's visitors, is at just the right elevation, at just the right degree of latitude and longitude, at just the right point on the main line of a great railroad, and at just the right point on the map of a great State.

Thus there is good reason for some of our Baltimore friends to come here for keeps. But if they won't do that, why let them soon come back on a visit at all events.

SHIP SUBSIDY.

Thursday when the ship subsidy bill came up in the Senate for discussion Senator Simmons made the first speech in opposition, and North Carolina's other senator, Mr. Overman, voted with Mr. Simmons against the measure. Indeed, not a single Democrat voted for it, every member favoring the measure being a standpat Republican. It is significant, therefore, that the trusts and the moneyed interests in America are still not without their old friends and allies in the United States Senate.

Should this bill pass the House, the government will then enter as a partner into the private interests of common carriers on the high seas. The postoffice department is authorized by a provision in the bill to pay $4.00 per mile to American-built vessels carrying mail of the second class and $2.00 to those carrying mail of the third class, and no contract is to be awarded to competitive railroad lines. Thus the Senate would engage the government in the business of aiding interests that would operate in restraint of trade—the very thing condemned by the people and the administration. But it is not thought that the bill will pass the House.

WE ARE READY.

The other day Charles Fuller Harley resigned as a member of the Baltimore School Board, and when asked for suggestions as a result of his experience on the board, he declared that the board should be done away with entirely and that full authority should be vested with the superintendent of schools, he to be directly accountable to the mayor for the performance of his duties.

Mr. Harley intimated that the board was unwieldy and that authority should be placed where concentrated effort and talents could count for definite and direct results.

All over the country people are awaking to the fact that representation by boards is not sufficiently direct to be satisfactory, especially since members of such boards often do not understand the least thing about the technical and internal operations of the affairs they are called upon to regulate, and since they are, in the very nature of the case, men whose minds are daily centered on private affairs and who can afford to attend to municipal business only on borrowed energy and time. Each one of them, being elected by only a portion of the citizens, cannot be said to be a representative of the people.

But why go into further argument? We are only stating what every intelligent man and woman ought by this time to know. And we end by repeating the absurd question which was asked in this column of yesterday: Are we as citizens of Greensboro prepared to control affairs without further need of guardians?

Found the Saint's Day.

One Russian peasant sued another to recover the sum of 50 rubles, the debtor having faithfully promised to return the money on St. Henry's day. But, having failed to do so for a long time, the lender discovered that the Russian Orthodox church includes no such saint as St. Henry, and the judge before whom the case was tried was much puzzled as to what verdict he should give. Happily the idea occurred to him that, saint or no saint, All Saints' day included even the most doubtful, so he gave judgment that the 50 rubles should be returned next All Saints' day.

Very Obliging.

"Sir," tartly says the lady of uncertain age to the floorwalker, "Is there any way of getting one of these salesmen to pay me some attention?" "Well," says the floorwalker confidentially, "I'll introduce you to any one of them you fancy, but I'll tell you now that all of them have their 'steadies.'"—Judge.

MUCH PROPERTY CHANGED HANDS

During the month of January deeds were recorded in the office of Register of Deeds Rankin transferring property worth approximately $200,000. This is nearly as good a showing as was made in December when all previous records were broken, when $220,000 worth of property transfers were recorded.

COMMISSION FORM.

The Absorbing Topic Among People Who Are Interested in Greensboro's Welfare.

While all our people or most all are urging that something be done to boom Greensboro, either elect another board of aldermen or adopt the Commission Form of Government, some of them seem to overlook some important matters.

Greensboro must be made to grow. No doubt about that. We need many new factories—all towns and cities need them. We need perhaps more territory. We need better streets in some places. All along the line there could be improvement—but why not boost some of the enterprises we have, and why not make them hum?

All men know that Greensboro alone sends away thousands of dollars to the North to build up great insurance companies. Why not stop that money in our own town, why not keep it here? If we would keep our insurance money at home it would help in a thousand ways to boost Greensboro. The Greensboro Life Insurance Company, the youngest company in the city has demonstrated that the South can support more life insurance companies than we had six years ago—but Greensboro is doing no more for her home companies than other parts of the South are doing for them. In our home town we should always keep every dollar that it is possible to keep. Greensboro has three life insurance companies—and the Greensboro Life, as one of them, invites every citizen of Greensboro to think well and long before sending money out of the city, out of the State, out of the South. Keep your money at home, when you can, and the Greensboro Life guarantees to write as good a policy; as attractive a policy; as cheap a policy as any first class company in the world. Let's get busy and talk about what we have here, and keep these enterprises enthused with our support and good will and then talk change of government too, if we feel like it. The Commission Form of Government need not be the only topic—let us boost our home concerns, let us build up all the commercial enterprises possible. It.

THE LEGISLATORS INSPECT COLLEGE

Committee from Raleigh Greatly Pleased With Manner in Which State Normal Is Conducted—Delightfully Entertained by Students Last Night.

The legislative committee from the Senate and House of Representatives arrived in the city yesterday afternoon to inspect the State Normal and Industrial College and the Colored A. & M. College. In the party were J. F. Spainhour, chairman, Burke; John T. Johnson, Orange; R. L. Haymore, Surry; R. A. Nunn, Craven; O. A. Barbour, Benson; W. S. Privott, Chowan; E. M. Koonce, Onslow; N. B. Kendrick, Gaston.

The committee was met by President Foust and at 2:30 o'clock met the student body of the Normal in the chapel, each member making a short speech. They then inspected the different buildings, studied the needs of the institution and discussed the additional appropriations asked for by the executive committee of the college.

At 6 o'clock the committee had dinner in the dining hall of the main dormitory with the students, the menu being prepared especially for the legislators. Last night the Sophomore class entertained the lawmakers at a play, "The Palace of Truth." The play was gotten up by the young ladies complimentary to the legislators and was greatly enjoyed. The cast of characters in the play were ably portrayed by the young ladies and the guests of honor seemed to regret that the play did not last longer.

The college is greatly in need of two additional dormitories in order that all who wish to enter the institution can do so. There is also great need for additional class room and it is hoped that the Melver building can be completed at an early date. The institution also wants an increase of $25,000 in the annual appropriation, making this $100,000, and an appropriation sufficient to provide adequate facilities. The committee appeared greatly pleased with the work of the college and promised to do everything possible to secure an additional appropriation.

This morning the committee will visit the Colored A. & M. College and inspect the institution.

Duncan's Steam Laundry Starts Off Well.

Duncan's steam laundry has been moved from East Sycamore street, to the Neese building on Davis street. It occupies Nos. 230 and 238 on the Davis street side of this building. The building on Sycamore street proved unsuitable to the needs of the business. Messrs. T. Watt Duncan and H. E. Peele are the active heads of this new industry, which has started off well.

Important Meeting of Woman's Club This Afternoon.

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Club will be held this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Carnegie library and all the members of the club are urged to be present at that hour. At 4 o'clock Mr. J. P. Cook, of Concord, chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Stonewall Jackson Training School at Concord, will speak to the club about the work of that institution.

Bankruptcy Court.

In Bankruptcy court yesterday Judge Boyd adjudged on his own petition James R. Gray, of Leaksville, bankrupt. The indebtedness is about $1,850 and the assets are over $3,400. The matter was referred to G. S. Ferguson, referee.

The truth in a nutshell is often hard to pick out.

LARGER QUARTERS ARE NEEDED BADLY

At a meeting of the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday afternoon the necessity of larger quarters was evident, when some of the directors had to use improvised seats in small corners. The present offices are crowded and it was the sense of the board that larger quarters be secured at once. It is the intention and desire of the board to have sufficient room in the new quarters for the accommodation of small or medium sized conventions which may be held here or for the use of local boards of directors. While no final action was taken new quarters will probably be secured within the next few weeks.

A committee was appointed to consider the question of obtaining a railroad from Greensboro to connect with the Norfolk & Western and other railroad systems.

The board unanimously endorsed resolutions protesting against the proposed change of the name of the Colored A. & M. College, a movement looking to this being on foot in Raleigh.

Arrangements for the entertainment of the Baltimore visitors while in the city were perfected.

Peaches Twenty-Five Cents Apiece.

Peaches, 75 cents apiece, brought all the way from Cape Colony, South Africa! That is what a Broad street fruit dealer showed in his store window yesterday. They were wrapped in cotton, and the dealer said they had come by way of London, a journey of twenty-eight days. There were apricots, 35 cents apiece, from the same locality.

ITCHING IRRITATION.

Worst Form of Skin Trouble Quickly Cured by Inexpensive Treatment.

When you suffer with any skin trouble, even though the itching seems unbearable, do not think that it is necessary to use some disgusting greasy ointment. Try Hokara, a pure and simple skin food, that is guaranteed to contain no grease or acids and which is so clean that it does not soil the linen.

Not only are minor skin troubles like pimples, blackheads, acne, barber's itch, etc., quickly cured, but the worst ulcers or cases of salt rheum or eczema are cleansed and healed by this wonderful skin food.

In order that any one may try Hokara at small expense Howard Gardner is selling a liberal sized jar at 25c and in addition, guarantees to refund the money if the treatment does not do all that is claimed for it. Larger size 50 cents.

TESTIMONIAL.

I wish to state for the benefit of anyone suffering from eczema, that I had eczema on my hand for some time and could find nothing that would cure it until I used Hokara. One 25c jar entirely cured me. Wm. Nichols, 621 1-2 Central Ave., Ft. Dodge, Iowa.

Trudging For the Wash.

The Portuguese country people as a usual thing have great physical endurance, doubtless as a result of the "survival of the fittest" for many generations. The laundry workers are an example of this. People come in from long distances to get soiled clothes of city customers. The clothes will be placed in big panniers on the family donkey, and the peasants will start back late in the afternoon. Some of them will travel all night, and it will be sunup before they reach their homes, many miles from Lisbon or Oporto. A day or two later they are trudging back to deliver the clothes, now spotlessly clean, and to get another lot from the same patron. Many a countryman and his wife take a jaunt of fifteen miles or more, which makes one think that there might be many who could rival the feats of Weston and O'Leary as walkers if they tried.—Christian Herald.

An Early "Trust."

As an example of trusts and monopolies prevalent even in that early day it may be mentioned that in 1750 one Benjamin Crabb obtained the exclusive right to make sperm candles in Massachusetts for fourteen years. A year later, however, a factory was started in Providence, R. I., and within the decade there were eight factories in New England and one in Philadelphia. Their output greatly reduced the price of candles, which not long before sold for 5 shillings a pound. In those days $1.25 was worth fully three times as much as it is now.—N. Hudson Moore in Designer.

The Sixteenth Century Critic.

"But why, prithee," contended the first critic, "should this new playwright, Shispor, have introduced a comic gravedigger scene into his tragedy, perdie?"

"'Tis easy of solution; by hen," answered the second critic. "Our author hath put in gravediggers for the purpose of unearthing a plot! Boy, a cup of sack!"

Wit was crude in them days.—Cleveland Leader.

Placing the Blame.

Little Eva—Mamma, didn't you say that if my new dolly got broke somebody would have to be spanked? Mamma—Yes, dear. Little Eva—Well, she broke her arm today. Spank her, please.—Exchange.

Interested.

"What did the rhinoceros do when you fired at him?" asked the eager listener.

"He just stood still and watched me run."—Washington Star.

PNEUMONIA FOLLOWS A COLD.

But never follows the use of Foley's Honey and Tar, which checks the cough and expels the cold. M. Stockwell, Hannibal, Mo., says: "It beats all the remedies I ever used. I contracted a bad cold and cough and was threatened with pneumonia. One bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar completely cured me." No opiates, just a reliable household medicine. Howard Gardner.

Too Your Own Horn.

Two negroes came up to the outskirts of a crowd where Senator Bailey was making a campaign speech. After listening to the speech for about 10 minutes, one of them turned to his companion and asked:

"Who am dat man, Sambo?"

"Ah don't know what his name am," Sambo replied, "but he certainly do recommend hisself mos' highly."—Success.

Mur, Mammy, and Mother, push your boys out and let them sell Mother's Joy and get the bicycle. It is a great lesson for them. For sale by Conyers & Sykes.

A Rare Freak.

Smith (at the dime museum)—Pshaw, I don't see anything curious or remarkable about that old man that seems to gather such a crowd to look and gaze at him.

Jones—Don't eh? Why that old fellow lived 68 years in Adams county, Ohio, and never once sold his vote.—Life.

NIP IT IN THE BUD.

The Appearance of Dandruff a Forerunner of Future Baldness.

That such is the case has been conclusively proven by scientific research. Dr. T. J. L. Dandruff, the noted European skin specialist, declares that dandruff is the forerunner of baldness. It is caused by parasites, destroying the vitality in the hair bulb. The hair becomes lifeless, and in time, falls out. This can be prevented.

Dr. T. J. L. Dandruff kills this dandruff germ, and restores the hair to its natural growth and abundance.

Herpicide is now used by thousands of people—all satisfied that it is the most wonderful hair preparation on the market to-day.

STORK BROUGHT FOUR BABIES

Christian Herald.

Santa Claus and the stork came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Cortwright, near Dunellen, N. J., and left a basket of babies. The combined weight of the four was twelve pounds.

They all appear to be strong and healthy, and the mother is said to be doing well. The father said to a reporter:

"I don't know of any joy keener than that of being a father, but to have the happiness come fourfold is what I might call bewildering."

Mr. and Mrs. Cortwright are each twenty-four years of age and celebrated the first anniversary of their wedding last Thanksgiving Day. The birth of so many babies at one time produced a great sensation in the neighborhood, and gifts poured in from every direction. Among the gifts sent to the infants are two little cribs and a pair of baby carriages, each capable of holding four infants, besides rattles, blankets, underwear, etc.

Fortunately Mr. and Mrs. Cortwright have a farm and will be able to provide for the support of the large family which is promised. It is said that the census indicates that the increase in population of this neighborhood is not as rapid as in other parts of the country, and it is said that there is some local pride as well as surprise in the numerical increase.

It is to be hoped that the dear little ones that God has given these servants of his may be spared in health and strength and that the parents may live to train them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord. The advent of these cherubs suggests the promise of the Psalmist:

Thy wife shall be as a fruitful vine by the sides of thine house; thy children like olive plants round about thy table. (Ps. 128:3.)

Life Saved at Death's Door.

"I never felt so near my grave," writes W. R. Patterson, of Wellington, Texas, as when a frightful cough and lung trouble pulled me down to 100 pounds, in spite of doctor's treatment for two years. My father, mother and two sisters died of consumption, and that I am alive today is due solely to Dr. King's New Discovery, which completely cured me.

Now I weigh 187 pounds and have been well and strong for years." Quick safe, sure, its the best remedy on earth for coughs, colds, lagrippe, asthma, croup and all throat and lung troubles. 50c. and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Fariss-Klutz Drug Co.

by a cure-defying stomach trouble that baffled doctors, and resisted all remedies he tried, John W. Modders, of Moddersville, Mich., seemed doomed.

He had to sell his farm and give up work. His neighbors said, "he can't live much longer." "Whatever I ate distressed me," he wrote, "till I tried Electric Bitters, which worked such wonders for me that I can now eat things I could not take for years. Its surely a grand remedy for stomach trouble." Just as good for the liver and kidneys. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50c. at Fariss-Klutz Drug Co.

The Exception.

When a man talks about himself a good deal he is bound to be a bore to every one in the world unless he happens to have a woman in love with him.—Acheson Globe.

This is what Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Ledbetter said on January 22:

"Gentlemen: Last night our daughter, age five years, was taken suddenly with pneumonia. We used 1-2 box of Mother's Joy as directed, and today she is almost well, thanks to the good remedy so near at hand and so cheap. This was a violent case, and hope you succeed. 520 Laura avenue."

Falls Victim to Thieves.

S. W. Bends, of Coal City, Ala., has a justifiable grievance. Two thieves stole his health for twelve years. They were a liver and kidney trouble. Then Dr. King's New Life Pills throttled them. He's well now. Unrivaled for Constipation, Malaria, Headache, Dyspepsia. 25c. Fariss-Klutz Drug Co.

TWIN

A New Edition

Now for the first time you get a complete set of all Mark Twain's writings at just exactly one-half the price they have ever been sold before. This is a new edition, just as complete as the old one, which still sells, by the way, at $50.00. This new edition is only $25.00—for the 25 volumes.

It had been Mark Twain's ambition to have his books in every American home, and he made a great personal sacrifice to bring about this remarkable opportunity—for the first time in the history of publishing, copyrighted books are sold at the price of non-copyrighted books—the chance will not come again.

But for Mark Twain's action this would have been impossible. Never before has a copyrighted library set of a standard author's works been issued at such a low figure.

His Complete Works—25 Beautiful Volumes

Brander Matthews says: "Mark Twain will be included in that group of writers headed by Molière and Cervantes. With the exception of Count Tolstol, Twain was the greatest of recent modern writers, and will be handed down to posterity through the trio of his works 'Huckleberry Finn,' 'Tom Sawyer,' and 'Pudd'nhead Wilson.' Twain is a greater stylist than Stevenson or Thoreau, and his 'Man that Corrupted Hadleyburg' is one of the finest works in English literature." Mark Twain himself wrote a preface to this edition. Brander Matthews has written the biographical criticism of Mark Twain and his work. There are portraits of the author at periods when the different books were in process of writing.

There are beautiful pictures by such artists as Frost, Newell, Smedley, Thulstrup, Clinedinst, Kemble, and Oppen. The binding is in rich red rep silk book cloth, with title labels stamped in gold. The books are printed on white antique wove paper, especially made for this edition. Each volume is of generous size and bulk, 5x7 1/4 inches.

MANAGER FOR BASEBALL TEAM

Frank Doyle Signed by Management Yesterday—Hicks Released.

The management of the Greensboro Baseball Club yesterday signed Frank Doyle, for the past two seasons second baseman for Roanoke in the Virginia League, as manager for the Greensboro team during the 1911 season. His release was purchased from the Roanoke club, a goodly figure being paid by the Greensboro club. Doyle will report March 1 and begin getting his men in line for the season.

For the past six years he has played in the Virginia League, having played with Danville as second and third baseman for four years before going to Roanoke, and is personally known to the Greensboro management. (During his stay in the Virginia League he stood at the top in fielding, hitting and baserunning and is an unusually hard worker.)

The management has released "Pug" Hicks, who has played four seasons with the Greensboro team and, excepting Doak, was the oldest man in point of service on the team. He has played all the infield positions and last year took charge of the team in the middle of the season. The team's record during the last half of the season was quite flattering as compared to the first half. Hicks has many friends in Greensboro who will regret that he will not again be with the local team.

ANOTHER FINE LECTURE

Cameron Johnson Again Delights Audience At Greensboro Female College.

Last evening in the Greensboro Female College auditorium Mr. Cameron Johnson, the noted lecturer, gave his second discourse on English history, beginning with the reign of King Henry the Eighth and ending with that of Victoria.

The lantern slides used to illustrate his subjects were up to the usual standard, being far better than any that have been shown in Greensboro for a long time; and the familiarity with the lives of English sovereigns, scenes and localities possessed by the speaker, together with the interest he manifests in his work, make him altogether a very attractive, instructive, and entertaining lecturer; and his work in this line is of inestimable value to students who are dependent on often dry and uninteresting text books on historic subjects and lectures that cannot be illustrated with vivid and life-size pictures such as are used by Mr. Johnson.

Even those present who unfortunately may have known little or nothing about the subject discussed certainly could not have gone away devoid of some knowledge of the history of the mother country.

Near the close of the lecture there was some little excitement caused by what seemed to be a cry of distress on the outside. Immediately several of the young ladies in the galleries started for the exits. Then the first idea that came to the minds of those remaining was that the building was on fire; upon several happily unimpassioned cries of fire, every one present, except a few of the cooler heads, left the hall. It was soon learned that the supposed distress signal was only an exclamation of some young people who were enjoying themselves on the campus. Then the firm command of the President, Mr. Robertson, was heard, and in a few moments every one was back in the auditorium and the lecture proceeded as if no interruption had occurred.

in an address to a National gathering of financiers, after showing that a Trust Company filled a place never met by any other corporation, closed his remarks by saying: "Character and capital are the best assets of a trust company. Its officers and directors, therefore, should be men of wide experience, men who have tried and who devote themselves with honorable zeal to the high duties of their positions." The Greensboro Loan & Trust Company certainly can point with pride to its directors and general officers—men well known in the financial world for conservatism and high character. In anything financial the Greensboro Loan & Trust Company would be pleased to be consulted.

Don't Keep Your Money in the House—PUT IT IN THE BANK

When your money is burned up regrets won't bring it back to you. It is very unsafe and it worries you a whole lot to have money in your house or in a hole in the ground. Besides "looking" time after time to see if it is safe teaches people where it is and makes it very unsafe.

Make OUR Bank YOUR Bank.

We pay liberal interest consistent with safety 4 per cent.
